

Connection with Intention: The Next Level of Networking!

COLUMBUS — January 18, 2010

National Association of W.O.M.E.N. is planning their 2nd Annual Charity Event for February 24, 2010. This event will benefit Chloe's Place.

National Association of W.O.M.E.N. is ending February's International Networking Month with a unique event that will boost the small business bottom line. This event is in conjunction with Networking Leaders Alliance (NLA), an organization bringing together the top networking organizations in Central Ohio in order to facilitate mutual support by sharing information and resources, and growing attendance/membership by supporting each other's events.

This event is taking networking to the next level. Attendees must complete a connection form. This form will help match each attendee to others who have the same goals, sphere of influence, and interest, thus making a "Connection with Intention".

In addition to the key note speaker and special presentation, there will be door prizes, raffles, food, cash bar and even a private theater room for children to view a movie, complete with popcorn and drinks (childcare will be provided).

A portion of the proceeds from this event will be given to CHLOE, Inc. CHLOE, Inc. is committed to empowering young single moms to become self - sufficient, resilient and adaptable; breaking the cycle of poverty. They are working to establish Chloe's Place, a home designed to equip young moms with the knowledge, skills, and disposition to continue their education and become personally fulfilled and socially responsible adults. While living at Chloe's Place young moms will develop positive parenting skills and healthy families in an environment where children are valued and loved. This will be accomplished by providing a two year self- sufficiency program in a safe, structured environment, and by offering each resident the opportunity to build a firm foundation for her spiritual well-being.

The Networking Leaders Alliance (NLA), is kicking off the month a networking event will be held on February 1, 2010, 5:30 - 8:00 PM, at the Arena Grand Movie Theater, Columbus, OH. Attendees can join this free event and receive a Passport Ticket to other events being held throughout the month of February.
